

NEWLOG Consulting Srl is a company of software specialized in the areas of the advising and of the development of systems it advances you of distributive logistics for the industrial field and the logistic services and document management.

It's strenght in the possession of specific competences in the within of the management of the transports arranged to the tried experience in development, personalizzazione of software, advising, technical support and formation, than they concur to it to propose to the Customers a deeply innovative product.